Liar Liar Wig on Fire

Black Abe

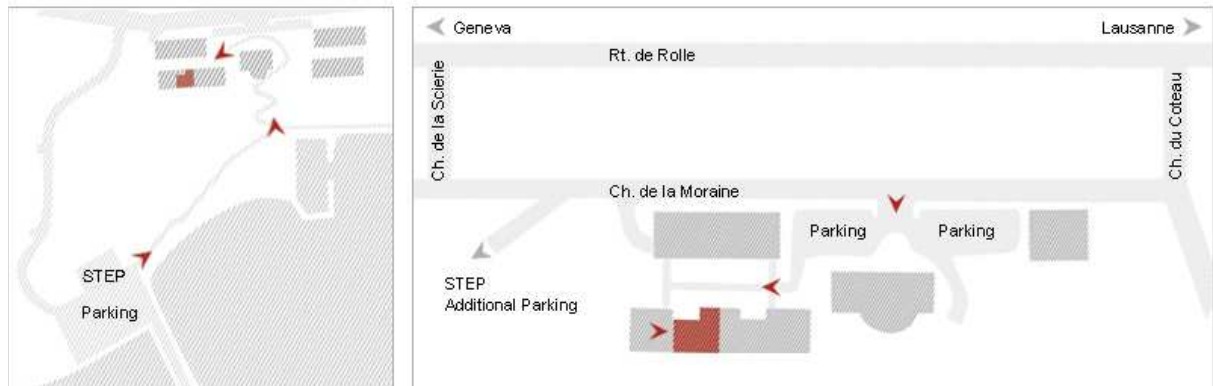

Wings Projects Art Space, a not-for-profit gallery on the shores of Lake Geneva presents, For the Love of Country, the first European solo show of American painter Justin Richel which explores early American history infused with a highly contemporary message.

On two floors of the spacious gallery, the exhibition introduces you to whirling concoctions of confectionary, amusing “Big Wigs” and ironic scenes from American history.

I look forward to welcoming you to the gallery, please refer to the website for further information: www.wingsprojects.com

There is plenty of parking space available, please refer to the directions below:
